50,000 were transplanted and budded in cast and middle Florida The price, instead of being $15 to $20 per thousand on the trees, as stated, should have been to $25 to $30. - Some choice lots sold as high as $35. Comparatively little attention is paid to raising lemons, for which, for, some reason, no great demand exists there. The orange grows wild all over Florida, and good trees, when transplanted and budded, bear 500 to 2,500 sweet oranges each.all cost

HAYTI.—In the Republic of Hayti we see what a black man's government can do with every thing in its favor-congenial climate, abundant natural resources, recognition by every civilized nation, freedom from foreign molestation.
